CVDOS
G R O U P

You want to build value that lasts?

We are looking for an inspiring colleague, a good team player with extraordinary analytical skills, a passion for complex problems and a strong will to achieve.

Business Analyst (m/f)
(full-time engagement)

What you will be doing
- Market analysis including assessments of overall market attractiveness, description and analysis of growth trends, competitive landscape and business models
- Development of complex financial models
- Screening of deal flow and assessment of potential targets (market position, financials)
- Assisting our investment team in due diligence processes
- Assisting our partners and our investment team in providing strategic support to portfolio companies
- Preparation of communication to investment committee and supervisory board

What you should have done already
- Academic Background in Business Administration or equivalent with fluent conversational proficiency in German and English
- Expertise in Corporate Finance, Accounting and Controlling
- Professional experience (internships) a plus
  - With leading M&A or leverage finance department, or
  - Major international strategic consulting firm, or
  - Transaction service and/or audit unit of major tax and business advisory

Who we are
CUDOS isan entrepreneurial private equity fund based in Vienna and aimed at direct investments in small- and medium-sized companies in Austria, Southern-Germany, Switzerland and selected central eastern European countries.  We target hidden champions, strongly focus on operational value creation and want to build value that lasts.

Contact
Please send your application including a letter of motivation, your CV, university diploma and relevant certificates of prior engagements to office@cudos-group.com

Based on your individual experience and expertise, CUDOS will offer a competitive compensation package for this position. However, due to legal requirements, we point out that the minimum salary for this position is EUR 1.767,00 gross/month.